Several covered wagons loaded with tools and camp outfits went north yesterday to the scene of operations on the Botwell canal.

The remains of the late N. Newman were taken to Salt Lake City for interment, being escorted to the Union depot by a delegation of brother Masons.

The former Cheyenne, Denver and other eastern people who have settled in Ogden are not complaining about the weather here, when they read in the papers that in their former homes the mercury in the thermometer was at and below zero and a thick mantle of snow covered the ground.

C. Ducheneau shipped a load of thoroughbred Galloway bulls to Portneuf, Idaho, yesterday. They were a fine lot.

Yesterday being the first Thursday in the month, the business houses of the latter-day Saints remained closed a part of the day.

Ex-Judge O. W. Powers was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. E. A. Head, who has been visiting in the east for several weeks, returned home yesterday. She enjoyed her visit, but is glad to get back to a place where the sun shines 365 days in the year.

The city council met to night in regular session. It is expected that the question of dividing and selling Union square will come up for final consideration and disposal.

The production of the opera "Halle Dean," Wednesday night, by the company of local performers, was most creditable.

The singing was excellent, showing the careful cultivation which has been bestowed upon the voices of the ladies and gentlemen. The production of the opera was by the talented Prof. L. D. Edwards.

On Wednesday Dr. Powers, the city physician, was called to attend a case of sickness at the house of John Greenwald, on Twenty-second street, where he found a case of malignant diphtheria, the patient being far gone with the disease. He quarantined the house.

The regular drill of the Utah National Guard will be held to night in the Union opera house. A full attendance is expected.

Ogden should be well represented in the Christmas edition of THE HERALD. Don't let the business men who are anxious to become well known outside of the territory will gladly avail themselves of the advantages which this edition offers by advertising in a widely circulated journal like THE HERALD.

Before Alderman Whalen, acting as police judge yesterday, came William McCord, George Lebeck and L. Thomas, to answer to the charge of drunkenness preferred against them, and which was sustained. They will be sober for a few days.

H. H. Henderson, clerk of the First district court yesterday, had the lot between the Vendome and Reed's new hotel, to David Evans, of Provo, for $8,000, just double what the lot cost him a few months ago. The lot has a frontage of forty feet on Twenty-fifth street and a depth of sixty-eight feet.

In the probate court yesterday, in the estate of Michael H. H. deceased, an order was made confirming administrator's sale of personal property.

McDaniel, of the Tribune, had a conversation with the mayor and city council, to arrange for the deputy marshals, he asked her where she fit when she went through the roof. Her answer made him blush and all the boys laughed.

An Ogdenite explained to a stranger yesterday the reason why Ogden appeared dull in comparison with Salt Lake. "Down at Salt Lake," he said, "you see hundreds of men wandering around on the streets with nothing to do. Here the men are all busy at work during the daytime and at night go home and rest from their labors."

LEAP FOR LIBERTY.

Unsuccessful Attempt to Escape From the Custody of the United States Marshal.

Quite a ripple of excitement was created on Washington street, in front of the Masonic block, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Several skilled divers were in the United States Marshal's office in the second story, and two of them stepped through the window out to the balcony.

After standing there a minute or two one of them stepped over the railing and let himself down upon the roof of a little shell of a building adjoining, and disappeared from the view of many people who witnessed the descent. Quickly a deputy marshal rushed out on to the balcony and drew a revolver from his pocket, then went back into the office. By this time the crowd had gathered, who swarmed in the front and rear of the building, but the frail damsel was nowhere to be seen. When she lit upon the roof, which was of tin, she gave way beneath her weight and let her down on the ground floor. Like a streak of lightning she ran through the building out of the back door and into an adjoining meat market, where she took refuge in the large ice box. A few minutes later she was found by a deputy marshal and taken to the office whence she had escaped.

NYMPHS DU PAVE

Yesterday morning a squad of deputy marshals swooped down upon two houses of ill-fame and arrested their inmates. They were taken before Commissioner Achilles Peoria at 2 p. m., and waiting an examination was bound over in sums of $200 and $50 to appear to day and when she took refuge in the large ice box. A few minutes later she was found by a deputy marshal and taken to the office whence she had escaped.

First District Court.
Thursday, November 7.—In the case of B. Terese vs. William Binford et al. On trial.

Brigham Stowell vs. Joseph T. Johnson et al. Order for decree.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of the croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by Z. C.
